Happy Scrappers

Dry creek was wonderful. I do love that retreat. We had 26 attendees at that meeting. I do believe that is a record for the Happy Scrappers. It just tells me that we are all dedicated to the group. OK yall have to go to the happy scrappers website and look at the EDIT ANN VIDEO and the SMALL ROCKING CHAIR VIDEO. Some have responded that they were unable to open it. But that depends on the speed of your internet and the speed at which your machine runs. Let me know if you are able to see it. On to Bee Business:

1. This months meeting will be held at the RC Miller Library in Beaumont 10-3 pm. The directions are on the website. It will be a sew day. So bring your machine and visit with us if you are able. Bring a covered dish to share with all.

2. The La. Girls (Linda, Angel, JoAnn, and Laurell) submitted a pattern for us to make to hang in the show in 2012. This quilt will be the Scrapper auction quilt. I have emailed Terry Thompson twice and Deb Lybarger is working on getting us permission. As a last resort I will call her. There is a number on her website.

3. It was decided to reword the wording on the Happy scrappers mission statement about missing meetings. Pat is working on that.

4. Due at this meeting is your UFO (if participating).

5. Dry creek for next year is April 19-22, 2012. Contract not signed as of yet.
