

November 2013
Happy Scrappers

Thank you to Laurell, Lydia and Tammie for hosting the October meeting. Was a good day. This months meeting will be hosted by Helen, Dawn, Barbara Loden and Becky Bridges. Dec. 7th at 11 am. They are having Mexican food brought in. And they are asking us to bring appetizers and/or desserts to share with everyone. This is our Christmas party. It is a week early, I hope y'all are ready. I'm cutting my 2 ½ inch strips now. My box was full, BUT, I heard this little voice in my ear of Carolyn Slack saying your box must be full. NOT ONE MORE STRIP can be added. The box is so pretty with all my fabrics in it. Luckily I cut 4 sets of everything. Two sets for the exchange and two sets for myself. FUN FUN FUN. I cant wait till next Xmas to see what we do with them. ON to Bee Business.

1. I am working on getting that waiting list correct. Brenda Peavey sent me an email and asked after a retreat in July to add her to the waiting list for the scrappers. So once I have that right, we are going to have Keith put that on the website (since I can never seem to put my hands on my list).
2. Things due this month.
  - A. Table Runner Holiday theme (to exchange) Wrap in white tissue with one piece of tape. Carol Taylor will furnish decorative bags for these to be placed in.
  - B. Tall & Skinny
3. Please take a look at the Hostess list below, if you have not signed up for a month, please do so. Remember it is your responsibility to host at least one month.
4. Retreat dates for 2014
  - A. Dry Creek April 3-6
  - B. Lakeview October 13-17
5. We normally bring projects for the new year at the Jan meeting, but we are going to push that to the February 15 meeting. Which due to the quilt show will be a week later. (or even the march meeting) Hopefully y'all are looking for projects.

Scrappily yours,
