

February 2017

Happy Scrappers.

This months meeting will be held at my house. No need to bring food. I will be cooking for you and JoAnn Enright will help me. Time is 10:30 with Brunch at 11. Carpool if you can, ill have some Mimosa's ready for you when you arrive.

1. For those of you going to the retreat in Woodworth Lousiana, I sent out an email to you about things you might need/want to know. ARRIVAL DAY IS THURSDAY not Wednesday at 9 am. Sorry about that.
2. Please look at the Projects and exchanges. Read all instructions and notes from the Hostess please. Contact me for any corrections. First exchange due in April are Carolyn Slacks Depression Blocks.
3. Hostess of exchanges, I've had this asked. No instructions on how you want the blocks bundled. Please check you instructions on the website. If you do not have those questions answered, please get those to me.
4. Progress on the Bow Tied Bouquets Auction quilt for 2019. Sounds early, but this has to be quilted and ready to hang in the 2018 quilt show. Carolyn Slack made some of the vines. I am making the leaves and vines for outside along with the bows. We will NOT work on the applique at the retreat. Ill explain at the meeting.
5. Lydia, Becky Bridges took attendance for you and I have the list. Remind me to give this to you.
