

Happy Scrapper December Newsletter

Sorry this is so late. My life is a zoo right now and I haven't figured out my new normal. It'll come.

Thank you, PJ, for hosting the November meeting.

We had a good sew day. We got the Dresden Plates put together and delivered to Linda A to quilt.

Sad news. Brenda Peavy has resigned. Brenda, we hope you will eventually rejoin us, and you are welcome to come to any meeting.

Christmas Party at Helen's house.
10:30 - no later than 11:00

Pajama party. Bras are optional but no nudes.

Secret Sister gift exchange.

A white elephant, quilt related, gift exchange.

One red and one green fat quarter for a game.

Helen is furnishing all the food. So just come and plan to have fun.

Carolyn will host the January meeting at her home. She will feed us gumbo.

See you next Saturday.

Happily yours,

Carol...
