

Happy Scrapper July Newsletter

Happy Independence Day. We are having hot dogs and apple pie at our house. And we will sit on the porch and enjoy other people's fireworks.

Saw a post on FB: Summer in Texas is to remind us what it will be like for eternity in hell.

Barbara hosted our June meeting with the help of her two sisters. They treated us well. We had 10 members present.

Some reminders:

Wool blocks are due in September.

Hen House exchange due in September.

Remember the gift exchange at our Christmas party.

Next meeting is July 13, at the Groves library, 11am to 2pm. Carol and Barbara are hosting and it will be pot luck. We will furnish paper goods and drinks.

In addition to Show and Tell, bring a quilt that has a story.

Happily yours,
Carol.....
