

Happy Scrapper February Newsletter

Our meeting is really early this month, and the newsletter is a little late (I've been chasing squirrels). Meeting is this Saturday, February 8, Groves library, potluck, hosted by Sue and Lynne.

Don't forget your little valentine challenge/exchange from Lynne. If you haven't done yours yet, you still have time, mine only took about two hours and it was fun. The directions are on the website.

Sylvia, sorry you missed the last meeting, but you still have to pay dues? and then we'll be complete. Thanks everyone.

We're still looking for an exchange idea and, I think, an idea for our next quilt show.

Bring show and tell.

Reply yes or no that you're coming so Sue and Lynne will have some idea how to prepare for us.

Happily yours,

Carol
