

Happy Scrapper July Newsletter

Hope everyone enjoyed celebrating the 4th of July. It was HOT!!!

Barbara did a great job hosting in June. I know someone helped her and, I apologize, because I cannot remember who. Hey, I'm old.

Linda A and Laura are hosting July 12, Groves Library, 11:00. They are serving hotdogs and ask that you bring salad or dessert.

We had quite a discussion about replying your attendance for the hostess. We decided that everyone should reply yes or no. Not only will it help the hostess prepare, it will let us keep up better with each of you.

Our wool quilt for our entry in the Bee challenge is ready to be quilted. Linda A has volunteered to quilt it and Carolyn will do the binding. Thanks to both of you for stepping up. A big thank you to Linda T for honchoing its construction. It is a charming quilt. Linda T, be sure you get a picture for our entry.

I spoke to Peggy about the Bee exhibit to see how much room we would be allowed. It will be January before they can make those decisions, so...there is no rush on our part.

I am going to visit my sisters and attend a family reunion this weekend. Carolyn will be in charge in my absence. I will miss seeing you, but I am excited to see my sisters and a bunch of my cousins. I'll see you at Guild.

Bring show and tell and take lots of pictures. And reply yes or no.

Happily yours,
Carol.....
